

AIFC Online Legal Internship Programme “Future Lawyers” Essay Submission Guidelines

Topics for the essay:

1. Advantages of the AIFC Contract law
2. Advantages of the AIFC Company law
3. Advantages of the AIFC Dispute Resolution system and its role in promotion of the rule of law in Eurasia

General guidelines:

Critically discuss one of the questions above by analysing the Acting law of the AIFC in comparison with Kazakhstan National Legal Framework and giving suggestions on improvement of a chosen route.

It is recommended to write not more than 1000 words, but more will still be accepted. Essays to be written in English language.

References:

Please note that plagiarism is not allowed, referencing needs to be kept. It is recommended to follow the Harvard citation guidelines.

Evaluation criteria:

1. Analysis/Application
2. Addresses the question
3. Structure of argument
4. Use of materials

Essays results:

Essays will be evaluated by AIFC internal evaluation committee, all results will be final and won't be subject to change. Successful candidates will be announced via email in the 2nd half of May 2020 and will be invited to the online interview.

Submission:

The file should be saved in PDF format, include your full name in the header of the document and named as follows: Your Last Name_Online Legal Internship Programme

Email subject should state: AIFC Online Legal Internship Programme “Future Lawyers”

Essays should be submitted to the academyoflaw@aifc.kz

Deadline for submission: 19 May 2020. Time: 11.59 pm (Nur-Sultan time)