GUIDELINES FOR PROVISION PRO BONO LEGAL SERVICES BY REGISTERED LEGAL ADVISERS

These guidelines provide an information on fulfilling the mandatory Pro Bono Legal Services requirement for the Registered Legal Advisers, prescribed by Rule No. 4 of 2022 AIFC Legal Services Code.

What is Pro Bono Legal Service?

Pro Bono Legal Services refer to legal work undertaken without charge for those who cannot afford legal services. This includes providing legal advice and information as a matter of general guidance and offering broad pointers.

Mandatory Requirements:

1. Registered Legal Advisers are required to render a minimum of 12 hours of Pro Bono Legal Services per full practicing year.
2. Registered Legal Advisers must uphold the same high standards of service for Pro Bono applicants as for all other clients.

How to get Pro Bono Legal Services?

- (a) Pro Bono applicants can request to the Office of the AIFC Legal Services Board (“the Office”) for Pro Bono Legal Services by mail at officelsb@aifc.kz;
- (b) Pro Bono applicants can request for Pro Bono Legal Services through a Registered Legal Adviser for the meeting to be organised and fixed by the Office;
- (c) Registered Legal Advisers may independently find clients for Pro Bono Legal Services and contact the Office via email to arrange the session, which can be conducted either online or offline.

Procedure of the Office of the AIFC Legal Services Board

1. Upon receiving a request for Pro Bono Legal Services, either directly from the applicant or via a Registered Legal Adviser, the Office will acknowledge the request and verify the applicant’s eligibility.
2. The Office will review the submitted Application Form – Annex 1 and ensure all necessary information is provided. If the request is made through a Registered Legal Adviser, the Office will confirm the details with the Registered Legal Adviser.
3. Once the request is verified, the Office will organise the Pro Bono session, coordinating with both the applicant and the Registered Legal Adviser. The session can be arranged either online or offline based on the preferences and availability of the parties involved.
4. The Office will send a confirmation email to the applicant and the Registered Legal Adviser detailing the date, time, and format (online or offline) of the session.
5. After the session, the Office will issue a protocol specifying the quantity of hours provided, description of the service (e.g., legal advice, document review), and nature of the case or issue. This protocol will be sent to both the applicant and the Registered Legal Adviser.
6. After the session, the Office may follow up with both the applicant and the adviser to ensure that the services provided met the required standards and to collect any feedback for future improvements.
